

Name: _____ Date: _____

American Green Tree Frog

Hyla cinerea

The American Green Tree Frog is a small, slender amphibian known for its vibrant green color and distinctive white or yellow stripe running from its jaw along each side. This species is nocturnal and...

Quick facts

Classification: Amphibian

Family: Hylidae

Habitat: Wetlands and marshes near freshwater sources

Diet: Carnivore

Conservation status: Least Concern

Lifespan: 2-6 years

Weight: 5-14 grams

Scientific name: Hyla cinerea

Did you know?

- Despite their name, American Green Tree Frogs may be found in a variety of colors, including shades of yellow and olive, depending on their environme...
- American Green Tree Frogs can change their color from bright green to brown depending on temperature and humidity. They are state amphibians of both ...

What I learned

---

---