

Name: _____ Date: _____

Box Jellyfish

Chironex fleckeri

The Box Jellyfish is a highly venomous marine invertebrate known for its cube-shaped bell and long, slender tentacles. Found primarily in the warm coastal waters of the Indo-Pacific and northern Aust...

Quick facts

Classification: Invertebrate

Family: Chirodropidae

Habitat: Coastal and shallow tropical oceans

Diet: Carnivore

Conservation status: Least Concern

Lifespan: Less than 1 year

Weight: Up to 2 kg

Scientific name: Chironex fleckeri

Did you know?

- A single Box Jellyfish contains enough venom to kill more than 60 adult humans.
- Box Jellyfish have 24 eyes arranged in clusters, allowing them to see and avoid obstacles. Their venom is among the most potent in the animal kingdom...

What I learned

.....

.....