

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Clouded Leopard

Neofelis nebulosa

The clouded leopard is a medium-sized wild cat native to the dense forests and foothills of Southeast Asia. Renowned for its striking cloud-like markings on its golden-yellow coat, the clouded leopard...

Quick facts

Classification: Mammal

Family: Felidae

Habitat: Tropical and subtropical forests

Diet: Carnivore

Conservation status: Vulnerable

Lifespan: 11-17 years

Weight: 11-23 kg

Scientific name: Neofelis nebulosa

Did you know?

- A clouded leopard's ankles can rotate backwards, allowing it to climb head-first down trees and hang upside down from branches.
- Clouded leopards have the longest canine teeth relative to skull size of any wild cat. They can climb down trees headfirst, and even hang underneath ...

What I learned
