CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Cloudless Sulfur Butterfly

Phoebis sennae

The Cloudless Sulfur Butterfly is a striking, medium to large butterfly known for its bright, lemon-yellow wings and swift, graceful flight. Commonly seen across the Americas, especially in open, sun…

Quick facts

Classification: Invertebrate
Family: Pieridae
Habitat: Open fields, gardens, roadsides, and disturbed areas
Diet: Herbivore
Conservation status: Least Concern
Lifespan: 1-3 weeks (adult stage)
Weight: 0.2–0.5 grams
Scientific name: Phoebis sennae

Did you know?

- Despite their delicate appearance, Cloudless Sulfur Butterflies can travel hundreds of miles during migration, even crossing the Gulf of Mexico.
- Cloudless Sulfur Butterflies are known for their impressive migratory flights, sometimes forming noticeable yellow streams as they move. Males and fe…

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use