

Name: _____ Date: _____

Crucifix Toad

Notaden bennettii

The Crucifix Toad, also known as the Holy Cross Frog, is a striking amphibian native to arid regions of eastern Australia. Its vivid yellow coloration with a distinctive cross-shaped pattern of green...

Quick facts

Classification: Amphibian

Family: Limnodynastidae

Habitat: Arid grasslands and claypans

Diet: Carnivore

Conservation status: Least Concern

Lifespan: 6–10 years

Weight: 25–35 grams

Scientific name: Notaden bennettii

Did you know?

- Despite its name, the Crucifix Toad is actually a frog, not a true toad.
- The Crucifix Toad is one of the only frogs known to produce a natural adhesive strong enough to trap insects. Its vibrant coloration serves as a warn...

What I learned

.....

.....