CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Curly-Coated Retriever

Canis lupus familiaris

The Curly-Coated Retriever is a distinctive and versatile breed known for its tight, water-resistant curls and remarkable retrieving abilities. Developed in England in the 19th century, it is one of …

Quick facts

Classification: Mammal
Family: Canidae
Habitat: Domestic; often found near wetlands, lakes, rivers, and forests where hunting and retrieving are practiced
Diet: Omnivore
Conservation status: Least Concern
Lifespan: 10-12 years
Weight: 60-95 lbs (27-43 kg)
Scientific name: Canis lupus familiaris

Did you know?

- The Curly-Coated Retriever is one of the oldest retriever breeds and was shown at England's very first dog show in 1860.
- The Curly-Coated Retriever's tightly curled coat is unique among retrievers and highly functional for working in cold water. This breed is known for …

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use