CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Dalmatian

Canis lupus familiaris

The Dalmatian is a medium-sized breed of dog known for its distinctive white coat adorned with black or liver-colored spots. Originally bred as a carriage dog in Dalmatia, Croatia, it was used to gua…

Quick facts

Classification: Mammal
Family: Canidae
Habitat: Domestic
Diet: Omnivore
Conservation status: Least Concern
Lifespan: 11-13 years
Weight: 23-32 kg
Scientific name: Canis lupus familiaris

Did you know?

- Every Dalmatian has a unique pattern of spots, much like a human fingerprint.
- Dalmatians are born completely white and develop their characteristic spots as they grow. They have a unique history as carriage dogs, running alongs…

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use