

Name: _____ Date: _____

Emperor Scorpion

Pandinus imperator

The Emperor Scorpion is one of the largest scorpion species in the world, recognized for its impressive size and glossy black exoskeleton. Native to the rainforests and savannas of West Africa, this ...

Quick facts

Classification: Invertebrate

Family: Scorpionidae

Habitat: Tropical rainforest floor and savanna regions

Diet: Carnivore

Conservation status: Near Threatened

Lifespan: 6-8 years

Weight: 30-58 grams

Scientific name: Pandinus imperator

Did you know?

- The Emperor Scorpion's venom is so mild that a bee sting is often more painful to humans.
- Emperor Scorpions fluoresce a bright blue-green color under ultraviolet light. Despite their menacing appearance, they are popular in the exotic pet ...

What I learned

.....

.....