CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

European Green Toad

Bufotes viridis

The European Green Toad is a medium-sized amphibian known for its striking green patches on a pale, often white or greyish background. This toad is highly adaptable and can be found across a wide ran…

Quick facts

Classification: Amphibian
Family: Bufonidae
Habitat: Open areas with loose soil near freshwater sources
Diet: Carnivore
Conservation status: Least Concern
Lifespan: 6-10 years
Weight: 20-80 grams
Scientific name: Bufotes viridis

Did you know?

- Unlike many amphibians, the European Green Toad can survive in semi-arid environments and even tolerate some brackish water.
- European Green Toads can change their skin color intensity depending on temperature and light conditions. Their tadpoles are capable of tolerating re…

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use