CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Goliath Frog

Conraua goliath

Conraua goliath of Cameroon and Equatorial Guinea is the largest frog alive, reaching about 32 cm from snout to vent and over 3.2 kg - roughly the weight of a newborn baby - and its legs stretched ou…

Quick facts

Classification: Amphibian
Family: Conrauidae
Habitat: Fast-flowing rivers and waterfalls in tropical rainforest
Diet: Carnivore
Conservation status: Endangered
Lifespan: 10-15 years
Weight: 2.5-3.3 kg
Scientific name: Conraua goliath

Did you know?

- Despite being the largest frogs on Earth, Goliath Frog tadpoles are only about 1 cm long when they hatch.
- Goliath frogs can leap around 3 m from a standing start, and captured animals have escaped enclosures by clearing the walls. Despite their bulk they …

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use