CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Gouldian Finch

Erythrura gouldiae

The Gouldian Finch, also known as the Lady Gouldian Finch or Rainbow Finch, is a strikingly colorful passerine bird native to northern Australia. It features a vibrant plumage with combinations of pu…

Quick facts

Classification: Bird
Family: Estrildidae
Habitat: Tropical savanna and open woodland
Diet: Granivore
Conservation status: Near Threatened
Lifespan: 5-8 years
Weight: 12-16 grams
Scientific name: Erythrura gouldiae

Did you know?

- Gouldian Finches sometimes nest in abandoned termite mounds, which provide added protection from predators and temperature extremes.
- Gouldian Finches are known for their vivid coloration, with each individual displaying one of three head colors. Unlike many birds, both males and fe…

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use