

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

---

Green Anole

Anolis carolinensis

The Green Anole is a small, slender lizard known for its vibrant green coloration and remarkable ability to change color from green to brown. Native to the southeastern United States, this agile reptile...

Quick facts

Classification: Reptile

Family: Dactyloidae

Habitat: Forests, woodlands, shrublands, gardens, and urban areas

Diet: Carnivore

Conservation status: Least Concern

Lifespan: 2-8 years

Weight: 3-7 grams

Scientific name: Anolis carolinensis

Did you know?

- Despite being called 'American chameleons,' Green Anoles are not true chameleons and are only distantly related.
- Green Anoles can rapidly change their skin color in response to mood, temperature, and environment. They possess specialized toe pads that allow them...

What I learned

---

---