CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Green-billed Toucan

Ramphastos dicolorus

The Green-billed Toucan is a striking medium-sized toucan native to the Atlantic Forest of South America. It is easily identified by its predominantly black plumage, vivid yellow throat, and the char…

Quick facts

Classification: Bird
Family: Ramphastidae
Habitat: Atlantic rainforest
Diet: Omnivore
Conservation status: Near Threatened
Lifespan: 15-20 years
Weight: 265-400 grams
Scientific name: Ramphastos dicolorus

Did you know?

- Unlike many toucans, the Green-billed Toucan's bill is almost entirely pale green, giving it a unique appearance among its relatives.
- Green-billed Toucans have specialized tongues that help them manipulate fruit. Despite their large bills, they are agile flyers among dense branches.…

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use