CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Green Frog

Lithobates clamitans

The Green Frog is a medium-sized amphibian native to eastern North America, commonly found near ponds, lakes, and streams. It features a green or brownish-green coloration with distinctive dorsolater…

Quick facts

Classification: Amphibian
Family: Ranidae
Habitat: Freshwater wetlands, ponds, lakes, streams, and marshes
Diet: Carnivore
Conservation status: Least Concern
Lifespan: 5-10 years
Weight: 28–85 grams
Scientific name: Lithobates clamitans

Did you know?

- Green Frogs can often be identified by their call, which sounds remarkably like the plucking of a loose banjo string.
- Green Frogs can leap over 3 feet in a single jump. Unlike many other frogs, they can overwinter underwater in cold climates. Their tadpoles may take …

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use