CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Green vine snake

Ahaetulla nasuta

The green vine snake is a slender, arboreal snake native to the forests of South and Southeast Asia. Characterized by its bright green coloration and elongated, pointed snout, this snake expertly cam…

Quick facts

Classification: Reptile
Family: Colubridae
Habitat: Tropical and subtropical forests
Diet: Carnivore
Conservation status: Least Concern
Lifespan: 7-12 years
Weight: 80-150 grams
Scientific name: Ahaetulla nasuta

Did you know?

- Despite their delicate appearance, green vine snakes are skilled predators that can accurately judge distances before striking at prey.
- Green vine snakes have horizontal pupils, unlike most other snakes, giving them a distinctive cat-like appearance. They can flatten their bodies to a…

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use