

Name: _____ Date: _____

Keel-billed Toucan

Ramphastos sulfuratus

The Keel-billed Toucan is a vividly colored bird renowned for its large, multi-hued bill that can measure up to one-third of its body length. Native to the tropical rainforests of Central and South A...

Quick facts

Classification: Bird

Family: Ramphastidae

Habitat: Tropical rainforest

Diet: Omnivore

Conservation status: Least Concern

Lifespan: 15-20 years

Weight: 380-500 g

Scientific name: Ramphastos sulfuratus

Did you know?

- Despite their large and colorful bills, Keel-billed Toucans are surprisingly quiet, producing frog-like croaks rather than loud calls.
- The Keel-billed Toucan can toss fruit into the air and catch it with its beak. Its large bill is made mostly of keratin and is surprisingly light. To...

What I learned
