CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Kinkalow Cat

Felis catus

The Kinkalow is a rare, designer breed of domestic cat developed by crossing the Munchkin and the American Curl. This small, playful feline is distinguished by its very short legs and distinctive cur…

Quick facts

Classification: Mammal
Family: Felidae
Habitat: Domestic/Home
Diet: Carnivore
Conservation status: Not Evaluated
Lifespan: 12-15 years
Weight: 1.8–3.2 kg (4–7 lbs)
Scientific name: Felis catus

Did you know?

- Kinkalow kittens can be born with either straight or curled ears, but only those with curled ears are considered true Kinkalows by breed standards.
- Kinkalows inherit their short legs from the Munchkin and their curled ears from the American Curl, making them one of the few breeds to combine these…

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use