CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Leopard

Panthera pardus

The leopard (Panthera pardus) is a versatile and adaptable member of the big cat family, Panthera, which includes lions, tigers, and jaguars. Its coat, ranging from pale yellow to dark golden, is ado…

Quick facts

Classification: Mammal
Family: Felidae
Habitat: Forest and savanna
Diet: Carnivore
Conservation status: Vulnerable
Lifespan: 12-17 years
Weight: 30-90 kg
Scientific name: Panthera pardus

Did you know?

- A leopard can carry prey that is heavier than itself up into the branches of a tree, often more than 3 meters off the ground.
- Leopards are remarkably strong climbers, often dragging prey heavier than themselves up trees to avoid scavengers like hyenas. They are also known fo…

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use