CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Luzon Horned Frog

Megophrys stejnegeri

The Luzon Horned Frog is a remarkable amphibian endemic to the island of Luzon in the Philippines. It is known for its distinctive horn-like projections above its eyes, which help it blend seamlessly…

Quick facts

Classification: Amphibian
Family: Megophryidae
Habitat: Moist tropical forests
Diet: Carnivore
Conservation status: Near Threatened
Lifespan: 5-10 years
Weight: 30-60 grams
Scientific name: Megophrys stejnegeri

Did you know?

- The Luzon Horned Frog can remain motionless for hours, relying on its exceptional camouflage to avoid both predators and prey.
- The Luzon Horned Frog's 'horns' are actually skin extensions that help it mimic dead leaves. It is a sit-and-wait predator, ambushing insects and sma…

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use