

Name: _____ Date: _____

Luzon Horned Frog

Megophrys stejnegeri

The Luzon Horned Frog is a remarkable amphibian endemic to the island of Luzon in the Philippines. It is known for its distinctive horn-like projections above its eyes, which help it blend seamlessly...

Quick facts

Classification: Amphibian

Family: Megophryidae

Habitat: Moist tropical forests

Diet: Carnivore

Conservation status: Near Threatened

Lifespan: 5-10 years

Weight: 30-60 grams

Scientific name: Megophrys stejnegeri

Did you know?

- The Luzon Horned Frog can remain motionless for hours, relying on its exceptional camouflage to avoid both predators and prey.
- The Luzon Horned Frog's 'horns' are actually skin extensions that help it mimic dead leaves. It is a sit-and-wait predator, ambushing insects and sma...

What I learned

-----

-----