

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Panther Chameleon

Furcifer pardalis

The Panther Chameleon is a vividly colored lizard native to Madagascar, renowned for its remarkable ability to change color. Males are especially colorful, displaying vibrant hues of red, blue, green...

Quick facts

Classification: Reptile

Family: Chamaeleonidae

Habitat: Tropical forest

Diet: Carnivore

Conservation status: Least Concern

Lifespan: 3-7 years

Weight: 100-180 grams

Scientific name: Furcifer pardalis

Did you know?

- A Panther Chameleon's tongue can extend up to twice its body length to catch prey with astonishing speed and accuracy.
- Panther Chameleons can rapidly change their skin color not only for camouflage but also to communicate with others and regulate their body temperatur...

What I learned
