CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sabertooth Fish

Coccorella atrata

The Sabertooth Fish is a deep-sea predator renowned for its enormous, curved fangs that protrude forward from its lower jaw. These fish inhabit the dark depths of the world's oceans, where sunlight n…

Quick facts

Classification: Fish
Family: Evermannellidae
Habitat: Deep ocean
Diet: Carnivore
Conservation status: Least Concern
Lifespan: 3-5 years
Weight: 100-400 grams
Scientific name: Coccorella atrata

Did you know?

- The Sabertooth Fish’s teeth are so large that they must fit into special grooves on the outside of the head when the mouth is closed.
- Sabertooth Fish can consume prey almost as large as themselves thanks to their highly distensible stomachs. Their oversized fangs are among the large…

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use