

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sabertooth Fish

Coccorella atrata

The Sabertooth Fish is a deep-sea predator renowned for its enormous, curved fangs that protrude forward from its lower jaw. These fish inhabit the dark depths of the world's oceans, where sunlight n...

Quick facts

Classification: Fish

Family: Evermannellidae

Habitat: Deep ocean

Diet: Carnivore

Conservation status: Least Concern

Lifespan: 3-5 years

Weight: 100-400 grams

Scientific name: Coccorella atrata

Did you know?

- The Sabertooth Fish's teeth are so large that they must fit into special grooves on the outside of the head when the mouth is closed.
- Sabertooth Fish can consume prey almost as large as themselves thanks to their highly distensible stomachs. Their oversized fangs are among the large...

What I learned
