CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Spring Peeper

Pseudacris crucifer

The spring peeper (Pseudacris crucifer) is a chorus frog barely 2 to 3 centimetres long and weighing less than a paperclip, yet a full chorus can be heard over a kilometre away and, at close range, c…

Quick facts

Classification: Amphibian
Family: Hylidae
Habitat: Forests and wooded wetlands near freshwater sources
Diet: Carnivore
Conservation status: Least Concern
Lifespan: 3-4 years
Weight: 2-5 grams
Scientific name: Pseudacris crucifer

Did you know?

- Despite their loud calls, Spring Peepers are rarely seen due to their small size and excellent camouflage.
- A chorus of these thumbnail-sized frogs is loud enough to be painful from close range and audible more than a kilometre off. The spring peeper surviv…

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use