CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Steller Sea Lion

Eumetopias jubatus

The Steller sea lion is the largest of all the sea lions, and the difference between the sexes is so extreme that bulls and cows barely look like the same animal: the male is several times heavier an…

Quick facts

Classification: Mammal
Family: Otariidae
Habitat: Coastal marine environments and rocky shores
Diet: Carnivore
Conservation status: Near Threatened
Lifespan: 15-30 years
Weight: 240–1,120 kg (530–2,470 lbs)
Scientific name: Eumetopias jubatus

Did you know?

- Despite their bulk, Steller sea lions can dive to depths of over 400 meters (1,300 feet) when hunting for food.
- The largest of all sea lions, with bulls so much bigger and so heavily maned they scarcely resemble the females. It can rotate its hind flippers forw…

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use