

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Steller Sea Lion

Eumetopias jubatus

The Steller sea lion, also known as the northern sea lion, is the largest member of the Otariidae (eared seal) family. Males can weigh up to three times as much as females and are known for their thi...

Quick facts

Classification: Mammal

Family: Otariidae

Habitat: Coastal marine environments and rocky shores

Diet: Carnivore

Conservation status: Near Threatened

Lifespan: 15-30 years

Weight: 240–1,120 kg (530–2,470 lbs)

Scientific name: Eumetopias jubatus

Did you know?

- Despite their bulk, Steller sea lions can dive to depths of over 400 meters (1,300 feet) when hunting for food.
- Steller sea lions are the largest eared seals in the world. Their vocal roars and barks can be heard from great distances, especially at crowded haul...

What I learned

---

---