

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

---

Sunda Pangolin

Manis javanica

The Sunda Pangolin is a nocturnal, solitary mammal known for its protective armor of overlapping keratin scales. Native to Southeast Asia, this elusive animal inhabits forests, grasslands, and someti...

Quick facts

Classification: Mammal

Family: Manidae

Habitat: Tropical and subtropical forests

Diet: Insectivore

Conservation status: Critically Endangered

Lifespan: 10-20 years

Weight: 4-10 kg

Scientific name: Manis javanica

Did you know?

- Sunda Pangolins are considered the world's most trafficked mammal due to immense demand for their scales and meat.
- Sunda Pangolins have long, sticky tongues that can extend up to 40 cm, perfect for extracting insects from deep within nests. Unlike most mammals, th...

What I learned

---

---