CREATURE ATLAS

Animal Fact Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Tokay House Gecko

Gekko gecko

The Tokay House Gecko is a large, vibrantly colored gecko native to Southeast Asia and parts of the Indo-Australian Archipelago. Recognized for its striking blue-gray skin adorned with bright orange …

Quick facts

Classification: Reptile
Family: Gekkonidae
Habitat: Tropical forests and human dwellings
Diet: Carnivore
Conservation status: Least Concern
Lifespan: 7-10 years
Weight: 150-400 grams
Scientific name: Gekko gecko

Did you know?

- The Tokay Gecko's vocalizations are so loud and unique that its name is an imitation of its call, which is often heard echoing through Southeast Asia…
- Tokay geckos can regenerate their tails if lost, and their toe pads allow them to climb smooth vertical surfaces, including glass. They are also famo…

What I learned

© Creature Atlas · www.creatureatlas.com · Free for classroom & personal use